

WINTERTHUR

Library, Academic Programs, and Collections Management Division
Academic Programs Department

WINTERTHUR RESEARCH FELLOWSHIP LIST 2015-2016

NATIONAL ENDOWMENT FOR THE HUMANITIES FELLOWSHIPS

Laura Turner Igoe, Postdoctoral Research Associate, Princeton University Art Museum, Princeton, NJ; American art history; "Art and Ecology in the Early Republic"; February 1-May 31, 2016.

Andrea Pappas, Associate Professor of Art History, Santa Clara University, Santa Clara, CA; American art; "Embroidering the Landscape in Early America"; August 15-December 15, 2015.

DISSERTATION FELLOWSHIPS

Nicole Belolan, Ph.D. Candidate, University of Delaware, Newark, DE; History of American Civilization; "Navigating the World: The Material Culture of Physical Mobility Impairment in the Early American North, 1700-1861;" August 2015.

Diana Greenwald, Ph.D. Candidate, University of Oxford, Oxford, United Kingdom; Economic & Social History; "Distinction and Development: Economic and Social Determinants of Artistic Taste in the United States, 1830-1880;" September-December 2015.

Elizabeth Keslacy, Ph.D. Candidate, University of Michigan, Institute for the Humanities, Ann Arbor, MI; Architectural history/theory, museology, history of ideas in architecture; "A New Kind of Design: The Cooper-Hewitt, Smithsonian Design Museum (1896-1976);" August 1-November 30, 2015.

Katherine Miller, Ph.D. Candidate, University of Virginia, Charlottesville, VA; American Architectural History; "Ammi B. Young and the U. S. Office of the Supervising Architect, 1852-62;" January-June, 2016.

SHORT-TERM FELLOWSHIPS

Mary C. Beaudry, Professor of Archaeology, Anthropology, and Gastronomy, Boston University, Boston, MA; Historical archaeology, material culture studies, food & foodways; "Gastronomical Archaeology: Food, Materiality, and the Aesthetics of Dining," May 2016